

Leslie Eugene Dunham

Feb. 8, 1942 - Feb. 5, 1999

Albany Democrat-Herald, Tue. July 27, 1999

Former Albany resident Leslie Eugene Dunham, 56, of Marion, died Feb. 5 in Salem of complications from a stroke.

Mr. Dunham was born in Leon, Iowa, grew up in the Albany area, and attended Knox Butte School and other Albany schools.

He was a mill worker, who worked mostly in the Willamette Valley. He enjoyed collecting vintage cars.

Survivors include daughters Angela of Salem and Crystal of Albany; and five sisters, including Ruth Aldridge of Falls City; and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Mr. Dunham's life was held in Salem.
