

Statesman-Journal Newspaper, Salem, Oregon (Unknown Date)

Dale John Haley

Nov. 21, 1942 -- May 6, 1997

Dale John Haley, 54, of Scapposse, formerly of Albany, died Tuesday.

He was born and grew up in Albany, the son of Miller Roscoe and May Lillie (Salvage) Haley, and was a lifetime Oregonian. He had served in the Army.

He married Karen Burke June 18, 1971 in Albany.

Mr. Haley worked for Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad (formerly known as the Burlington Northern). He enjoyed trains both at work and as a hobby. He also like model airplanes.

Surviving are wife Karen; brother Davis of Sisters; and sisters Anne Stark of Salem and Marian Paarmann and Betty McLagen, both of Corvallis. Brother Neil died before him.

Private services are planned. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday at Bronleewe-Bass Funeral Home, 1070 !. Main St., Hillsboro.