

Laura Jean (Peacock) Haworth

Sept 27,1943 – Feb 14, 2000

Albany Democrat-Herald, Wednesday, Feb. 23, 2000

Former Albany resident Laura Jean Haworth, 56, of Corvallis died Feb. 14 at home.

She was born in Seattle, the daughter of Raymond and Helen (Burdick) Peacock. She moved to Albany as a child and graduated from Albany High School. She studied psychology at Chemeketa Community College.

She had lived in Lebanon, Sweet Home and in Eureka, Calif., before moving to Corvallis in the late 1970s. She especially enjoyed shopping.

Surviving are son Ronny of Lebanon, Julie Clemmons of Albany and Teresa Haworth of Beaverton; brothers Duane Peacock of Corvallis, Bill Peacock of California and Terry Hoyt; and sister Amelia Turner of Corvallis. There are four grandchildren.

A memorial service for Mrs. Haworth will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at DeMoss-Durdan Garden Chapel, Corvallis, with the Rev. Thornton Gapen officiating.

Contributions in her memory may be made to a charity of the donor's choice, and sent in care of DeMoss-Durdan Garden Chapel, 815 N.W. Buchanan Ave., Corvallis Ore. 97330.
